Re: DoorDash, Inc. v. City of New York, No. 21 Civ. 7695-AT-SLC
Portier, LLC v. City of New York, No. 21 Civ. 10347-AT-SLC
Grubhub Inc. v. City of New York, No. 21 Civ. 10602-AT-SLC

Dear Judge Cave:

We write jointly on behalf of all parties in the above-referenced consolidated actions. Consistent with the parties' commitments in their previous letters to the Court, see DoorDash ECF Nos. 39–41; Portier ECF Nos. 17, 19–20; Grubhub ECF Nos. 15, 20, 23, we hereby submit a proposed consolidated case management plan and scheduling order to govern the remaining deadlines in all three actions. See Ex. 1. The parties have also stipulated under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(d)(1) that no additional Rule 26(f) conference is required in these consolidated actions and that discovery can proceed in accordance with the consolidated case management plan and scheduling order entered by the Court. See Ex. 2.

Respectfully submitted,
